

INTERAGENCY

---

HEADSTART

---

NETWORK

Head Start fosters children's capacity to learn and strengthens their social and emotional capacity, which significantly increases success in school and life.

Head Start recognizes the capacity of families and supports them in their role as the key resource in their child's life.

Head Start strengthens communities by building supportive connections between children, families, and their communities.